Egg-citing Ministry Opportunity

The Cathedral has traditionally had an Easter egg hunt for children following worship on Easter Sunday. This year we are in need of a new coordinator for this fun event. If you are interested in working on this joyful ministry, please contact Dean Matt for more information.

Chapel Leaders needed for midweek Eucharists

We are looking for a couple of new chapel leaders to help partner with a rotating group of clergy in leading midweek services of Holy Eucharist at the Cathedral. Chapel leaders are responsible for preparing the elements, vessels, and linens for the Eucharist, reading the lessons and intercessions, assisting the Celebrant in preparing the altar, and in the administration of Holy Communion. That may sound like a tall order, but don't be daunted! Training will be provided and our Celebrants are happy to answer questions from chapel leaders ahead of each service. For more information or to volunteer, please contact Dean Matt.

Security and Safety Committee Meeting this Friday

The Cathedral's Security and Safety Committee will meet this Friday, March 15 in the Chapter room at 12:30 PM. We are starting our focus on a safety plan for Fire and Tornado, along with making sure Emergency Exits and such are marked appropriately and that things are in working order. We will eventually move on to the creation of a Security Plan at a later date. Anyone interested in learning more about the Committee's work or in joining the team are welcome to attend. For more information, please contact Denise Whittington or Tara Durnil.

Save the Date: Revival at General Convention 81, June 22, 7-9 p.m. ET

A church wide revival will be at the KFC Yum Center in Louisville, Kentucky, the night before the start of the 81st General Convention. The event is free and open to the public. More details, including a link to register for the event, will be published as soon as it is available.

Registration open for legislative committee meetings

The church's legislative committees are beginning their work for General Convention, with meetings starting next week. All are welcome to register online to observe meetings or testify at open hearings. Those wishing to speak should register at least two business days prior to a hearing.

Louisville Master Chorale Concert

During this season of remembrance and reflection, Louisville Master Chorale offers two works for choir and organ that reflect the power and mystery of sacred texts. Uniting the Chorale with Second Presbyterian's magnificent Casavant Freres organ is Ken Cowen, one of North America's finest concert organists. Praised for his dazzling artistry and impeccable technique, Ken, along with Louisville baritone James Rittenhouse, will join the Chorale in Maurice Durufle's incomparable and virtuosic Requiem. A companion work by English composer Gerald Finzi-Lo, The Full, Final Sacrifice-completes the program with its thought-provoking setting of Thomas Aquinas's text.

Several members of the Cathedral choir (Jan Margerum, Randy Peters, Stuart McCloy and Liam O'Daniel-Munger) sing with the Louisville Master Chorale and would love to see you there! The concert will be at Second Presbyterian Church on Sunday March 17 at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are $25 and ($15 for students). You can purchase tickets online at www.louisvillemasterchorale.org or from one of the members of the Chorale. Do come join us!

Weekly Sunday Bible Study

Please join us for Bible Study at 9:00 on Sundays. We meet in the Chapter room on the second floor of the Diocesan House, and also via Zoom using the invitation below. Just click on the following link: <https://bit.ly/3RSozgS>

Our prayer before Bible study: "Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever."
