Diocesan Pilgrimage to Montgomery/Selma

The Racial Healing Commission is planning a pilgrimage for September 25-28, 2024. Members from throughout the Diocese of Kentucky will meet in Montgomery, AL for a formational journey as we visit the 3 Legacy sites created by the Equal Justice Initiative: The Legacy Museum, The National Memorial for Peace and Justice, and the newest that just opened - The Freedom Monument Sculpture Park.

A local guide and historian will lead us as we visit Hayneville (Jonathan Myrick Daniels Memorial) and Selma (Edmund Pettus Bridge). We will gather together at St. John's Episcopal Church for discussion and prayer. Details will be announced later, but start making plans with your congregation to be there in September! Click here to express interest in attending the pilgrimage, and to receive more information as it becomes available: <https://tinyurl.com/2p95jb39>

Cathedral Chronicle

The May issue of the Cathedral Chronicle will be published on Sunday, May 26. This will be the final issue until September. We welcome your submissions. Do you have news of ongoing ministries, upcoming events, information about things going on about the Cathedral this summer? The submission deadline is May 5th.

Please send submissions to chroniclechristchurch@gmail.com.

Invitation from Central Louisville Community Ministries

CLCM provides emergency rent and utility assistance, a food pantry, a clothes closet, a personal care closet, and more. Their Annual Campaign is underway to raise much-needed funds, and they're hosting a celebration event this afternoon from 2-4 pm at Noble Funk, 922 S Second St. No ticket or admission. Join us for fellowship, nibbles and drinks, and a chance to visit with special guest Ethan Almighty, a local rescue dog who has gained a national following. If you can't attend but would like to support CLCM by making an outright donation, visit our website <https://www.centrallouisvillecm.org/>

Three Week Queer Bible Study Begins This Week

Following up on the Queer Theology Study, this four-week Bible study looks at seven oft misinterpreted passages of scripture used to condemn homosexuality. Using the book, "Those 7 References" by the Rev. John F. Dwyer, the class will take an in-depth look at each passage.

The class will meet in the Dean's Hall at Christ Church Cathedral, 421 S. Second St. Class schedule is Tuesdays from 7:00 to 8:30 PM beginning April 23 and concluding on May 7. There is no fee for the class, however, you will need to purchase the book. Register with The Rev. Rick Kautz at rickkautz@gmail.com.

Applications accepted for United Nations 2024 climate conference Episcopal delegation

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry invites all interested Episcopalians over 18 to apply to be a delegate—in person or virtually—to the 2024 United Nations climate change conference, scheduled for Nov. 11-22 in Baku, Azerbaijan. Applications—found online in English (<https://tinyurl.com/4jnhvmp2>) and Spanish (<https://tinyurl.com/242fdh7u>)—are due by 5 p.m. ET May 6.

Since 2015, Episcopal delegates have attended the Conference of the Parties of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (known as UNFCCC COP), which this year marks its 29th session. The UNFCCC is a multilateral convention adopted in 1992 to help stabilize greenhouse gas emissions. Nearly 200 parties have joined the convention.
