Guest Lecturer on Thoughts and Prayers Trumpet Piece for Gun Violence

On Sunday, May 19th, Stacy Simpson will lecture with composer Roy Magnus on a trumpet piece for gun violence, "Thoughts and Prayers." Last year 48,117 lives were lost to gun violence in the United States, according to a study by researchers at the Johns Hopkins Center for Gun Violence Solutions. As gun-related deaths continue across the nation, "Thoughts and Prayers" was composed to bring awareness to gun violence. Stacy and the composer will discuss the intricacies of the composition. This will take place following the service and coffee hour that day.

Dean Emeritus of Canterbury Cathedral to visit Christ Church Cathedral

We are excited to announce an upcoming visit from The Rev. Dr. Robert Willis, Dean Emeritus of Canterbury Cathedral. Dean Willis served as Dean of Canterbury Cathedral for 21 years and previously served as Dean of Hereford Cathedral for 10 years. In recent years, Dean Willis is best known for his beloved daily broadcasts of Morning Prayer from the garden of the Canterbury deanery, a ministry which he continues in his retirement.

Dean Willis will join us for afternoon tea on Saturday, June 8 with a forum discussion on the role of Cathedrals as places of connection throughout the Anglican Communion. We will welcome him as our guest preacher on Sunday, June 9. More details will follow.

CLCM plans next Community Meeting,

On June 19, at 1pm at Calvary Episcopal Church, we'll be hosting our second Community Meeting. Last year at our inaugural meeting, we were able to make wonderful connections with "stakeholders" in our community....and we hope to do that again this year. There are 2 ways you can help!! How? First, you can mark your calendar and plan to attend and be an ambassador for CLCM. Secondly, you can let us know if you have contacts for people we can invite: small business people, elected officials, potential corporate sponsors, other congregations who may want to join CLCM, educational institutions, media folks, etc. This would help us tremendously to further spread our story and develop other partnerships.
