Where did the placards go?

Over the past 18 months, Christ Church Cathedral has been bearing witness to epidemic of mass shootings in the United States. Together, we prayed and placed placards on the walls of this sacred space for each of the 656 mass shootings which occurred during 2023. This past week, volunteers removed the placards in preparation for the conclusion of this act of prayer and witness. During General Convention, each Deputation will be presented with the placards commemorating the mass shootings which took place in their diocese as a visible sign of the prayers we have been lifting up on their behalf.

This does not mark the end to our parish's witness to the scourge of gun violence, but a transition. Over the summer months, we encourage everyone in the congregation to be in prayer for our way forward. Please bring anything which the Spirit puts on your heart to the Dean, a member of the Chapter, or a ministry chair. With God's help, we will discern how we are called by God, both individually and communally, to serve the Prince of Peace and end gun violence in our community.

Cathedral joins with fellow Episcopalians for Kentuckiana Pride

Christ Church Cathedral will be joining with the other Episcopal Churches in our deanery to take part in the Kentuckiana Pride Parade and Festival this Saturday, June 15. You are invited to march in the Pride Parade, staff a booth for the Episcopal Church at the Festival, or both.

For those interested in marching in the Pride Parade, our group will gather in front of Guacamole restaurant (900 E Market Street, Louisville) at 10 AM. Streets will be closed off for the event, so please make sure you leave extra time to park and walk to the meet-up point. You can find more details about the parade here: <https://kypride.com/parade>. If you have any questions about the Parade, please contact the Rev. Dr. Lee Shafer at rector@calvaryepiscopal.org

You can also sign up to be a booth volunteer. While working at the booth, you will have the opportunity to meet folks who are attending the festival and let them know about the Episcopal branch of the Jesus movement and how they can get connected with a local congregation or event. We will provide admission tickets to any booth volunteers who need them. You can sign up for a booth volunteer shift here: <https://tinyurl.com/4x5kc4yh>. If you have any questions about working the booth, please contact Dean Matt at matt@christchurchlouky.org

Come out and help spread the word that God's love is for everyone, no exceptions!

Midweek worship at the Cathedral

Major Feasts (in bold) are live streamed with services held in the nave. All other services are held in the chapel.

Tuesday, June 11: St Barnabas, Apostle

Celebrant: Jason Lewis

Articles for Parish Notes must be sent to amanda@christchurchlouky.org by NOON on TUESDAY.

reminders

Volunteer at Christ Church Cathedral during General Convention

The General Convention is just around the corner and the Cathedral is in need of volunteers to help prepare for and serve as hosts during a number of events.

On Saturday, 22 June, the Cathedral will host the General Convention Learning Party from 2-5. We need five volunteers from 1:30-5:30 PM to welcome folks and to direct participants to the workshops around the Cathedral.

Then, on Sunday, 23 June, after service, we need volunteers (as many as possible) to move all the chairs and kneelers out of the nave in preparation for the EpiscoDisco to take place on Monday evening.

After the EpiscoDisco on Monday evening, we need volunteers (as many as possible) to reset the nave for Tuesday's Youth Working to End Gun Violence event.

On Tuesday, after the gun violence prevention event, we need 12 volunteers to host the gallery opening for the "God at 'I Level" photography exhibit that evening from 5-9.

If you are able to help out or if you have any questions, please contact Frazier Marsh at 502-572-0144 or f-marsh@att.net 502-572-0144 or f-marsh@att.net

General Convention Volunteers

We are less than a month away from the beginning of the General Convention. Volunteers are still needed to fill the community awareness aide shifts in Public safety. These are the first people that attendees encounter, and make sure the space is welcoming, safe, and accessible to everyone. There are about 600 shifts left to fill!! The position does require standing, but our diocesan volunteer coordinator, Amy Spicer, has assured us that if prolonged standing is an issue, they will make sure that there are seats at all of the entrances

We also have shifts for move in/out in the house of deputies and worship.

If you would like to register to volunteer, go to <https://81stgenconvepiscopalchurch2024volunteers.my-trs.com/>

If you need help registering, please feel free to contact Edgar Wallace redgarwallace@gmail.com

Episcopal Revival and Learning Party at the 81st General Convention

Saturday, June 22, in Louisville, KY

Bring friends and family and join thousands for the Episcopal Revival, Saturday, June 22, at 7-9 p.m. at the KFC Yum! Center in downtown Louisville.

Together, we will give thanks for Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's ministry, kick off the 81st General Convention, celebrate God's all-inclusive love, and welcome new friends discovering Jesus through The Episcopal Church.

With Bishop Curry preaching and music led by Kentucky native Kory Caudill, keyboardist for country superstar Tyler Childers and director of the Concert for the Human Family, along with many beloved singers and leaders, our praise and prayers will ring across the land.

The fun starts with a Revival Learning Party at Christ Church Cathedral at 2-5 pm. Connect, learn, and be inspired via a host of workshops on evangelism, reconciliation, and creation care, taught by respected leaders from across the church.

Learn more and sign up at www.episcopalchurch.org/love-always-episcopal-revival.

General Convention attendees simply show badge at door for Saturday evening revival.

Visit “God at ‘I’ Level” Art Exhibit during GC

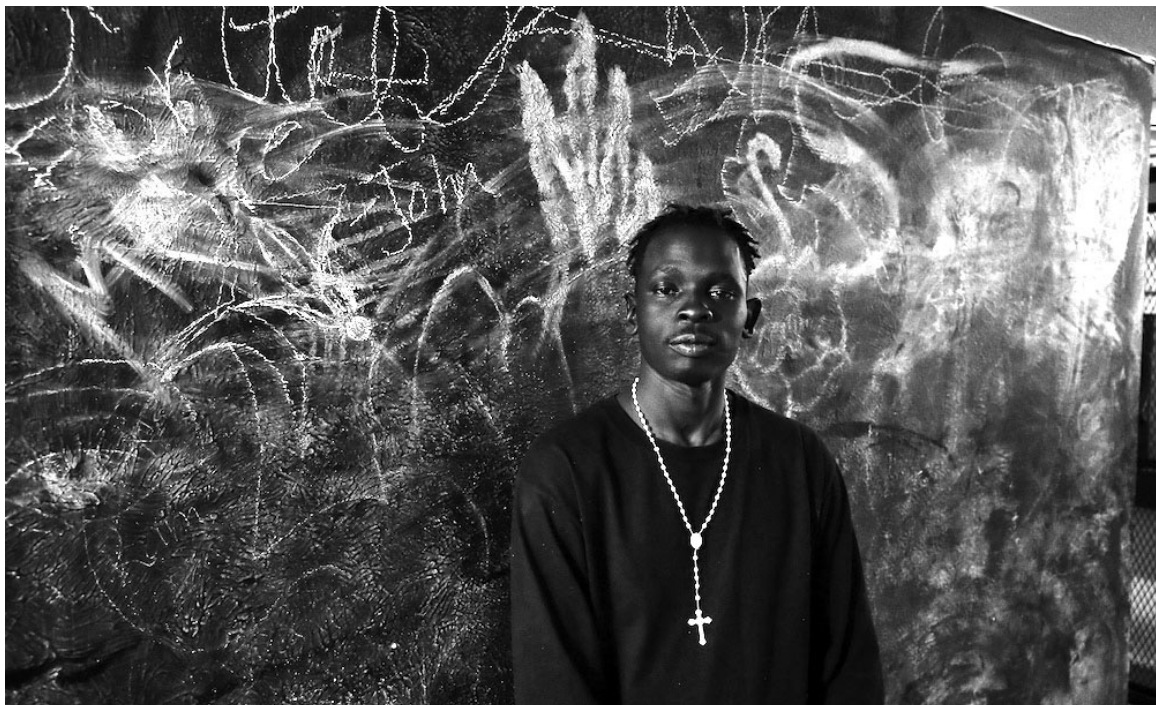

You are invited to the opening of an art exhibit and artist’s talk called “God at ‘I’ Level” at the Cathedral during the General Convention from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, June 25, for a time of learning together. The event is free and open to the public.

The opening event is sponsored by The Living Church, Christ Church Cathedral, and the Episcopal Parish Network to celebrate a new exhibit by photographer Asher Imtiaz. Many photos in this exhibit were taken with the help of sometimes forget that behind every issue is a person we can get to know and honor and love. That God is at eye level.

“Ansel Adams once said that a good photograph is ‘knowing where to stand.’ While this is often interpreted as finding the perfect geographic location to capture light, I choose to make it political. Fitting my contemporary work into the history of photography, ‘knowing where to stand’ becomes a statement of conviction in our contemporary society. We need to live a life

Episcopal Migration Ministries. The exhibit will be available throughout the convention.

Since 2016, Asher Imtiaz has been telling stories of recent immigrants to the United States, mainly refugees and asylum seekers, through photography. This calling has only become clearer against the backdrop of anti-immigration rhetoric and the politics of fear. “The only way to combat ‘the other’ mentality is to share stories,” says Imtiaz. “Immigration has been a major divisive issue among Americans in the last few years and has created fear among many. We of sustained attention. And awareness should move toward responsibility and action.”

“God at ‘I’ Level” takes similar themes and subjects and focuses specifically on confronting the all-powerful “I” in individualistic culture, engaging human eyes to get beyond the alienating self-absorption that leads to unjust attitudes and practices: “God is looking back at us. God is at eye level. Looking in human eyes is an opportunity to love God. Christians in the U.S. need this reminder—especially when some leaders say and do things that are dehumanizing.”

Worship Services at General Convention

Three Eucharist services—including one entirely in Spanish—and three Morning Prayer services will be offered June 23-28 and livestreamed.

Anyone with a convention credential (volunteers, registered guest, deputies) will have access. If you aren't registered to attend the Convention and would like to participate in worship services, you can pre-register for worship by completing this form \(https://gco.formstack.com/forms/worship_registration\).

Upon arrival at the Convention Center, please show your confirmation email with a government issued photo ID to be admitted. Seating is limited and subject to availability on the day of the service, so please share with your friends and sign up!

More information and bulletins for the services can be found at <https://generalconvention.org/worship-gc81/>

CLCM plans the next Community Meeting

On June 19, at 1 pm at Calvary Episcopal Church, we'll be hosting our second Community Meeting. Last year at our inaugural meeting, we were able to make wonderful connections with "stakeholders" in our community...and we hope to do that again this year. There are 2 ways you can help!! How? First, you can mark your calendar and plan to attend and be an ambassador for CLCM. Secondly, you can let us know if you have contacts for people we can invite: small business people, elected officials, potential corporate sponsors, other congregations who may want to join CLCM, educational institutions, media folks, etc. This would help us tremendously to further spread our story and develop other partnerships.
