Salutations

It has been an absolute pleasure working with staff here at the Cathedral, and I want each of you to know that I will miss you tremendously! This past Friday was my last day at the Cathedral, but I will be back helping with the Room at the Inn in January 2025. Matt, you've been the best boss that I have ever worked with, your kindness, humor, positive attitude, support, character, and demeanor is nothing short of what it takes to be a Dean, an amazing boss, and a true friend. Tom and Denise, thank you for both for being a listening ear whenever I needed to vent, laugh with it, and just have fun at work. I will miss all of our talks and just silliness in the office. Working with you both was great, and I appreciate you both being my work therapist when I needed it the most. Mark and Eva I'm going to miss sharing time with you at our Friday staff meetings, and swallowing down donuts and coffee as we laugh and pray during the meetings. Kay thank you so much for everything, for being a great listener to me and our kids! Aaron and Aubrey absolutely love you and when I told Aaron I was leaving, he got sad and said "You mean, I won't see Ms. Kay anymore". I quickly said yes, you will because I will bring you back to see her from time to time. Jan Margerum, thank you for being you, for being supportive to me and my family when we lost our father in law, and just for being kind. Your generosity, and just genuine concern and love for people can be seen and felt from others. Carolyn VanZant, thank you for your wisdom shared to me, and just your ability to uplift me and others is truly remarkable! George, you are so funny, thank you for stopping by the office and having little coffee talks with me. I pray that God blesses you in good health and prosperity! Dwight, you have been my partner in crime, and I am truly going to miss your laugh, our talks, and your willingness to help others is not always easy, but it's my prayer that God does amazing things in your life I feel like I may be missing someone, and if I am please charge it to my head and not my heart. I love you guys! Thank you for being you and thank you for accepting me as your Parish Administrator for these last few years.! Please keep me in your prayers as I transition into a new role of being a lab assistant.

— Amanda Chandler

The Rt. Rev. Sean Rowe elected 28th Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church

The Rt. Rev. Sean Rowe, bishop of the Episcopal Dioceses of Northwestern Pennsylvania and Western New York, was elected and confirmed the 28th presiding bishop and primate of The Episcopal Church on June 26 for a nine-year term beginning Nov 1.

Rowe was chosen from among five nominees on the first ballot. Following his election by the House of Bishops, the House of Deputies confirmed the election.

Rowe, 49, was ordained bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Northwestern Pennsylvania in 2007 and became bishop provisional of Western New York in 2019. From 2014 to 2018, he served as bishop provisional of the Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem.

Born in Sharon, Pennsylvania, Rowe earned a bachelor's degree in history from Grove City College, a master of divinity from Virginia Theological Seminary, and a doctorate in organizational learning and leadership from Gannon University.

Rowe was the youngest Episcopal priest in the U.S. when he was ordained in 2000 at age 24, and he was the youngest member of the House of Bishops when he was ordained and consecrated at age 32.

Known for his research and work on organizational learning and adaptive performance in the church, Rowe serves as parliamentarian for the House of Bishops and the Episcopal Church Executive Council; chair of the Episcopal Church Building Fund; and as a member of the Standing Commission on Structure, Governance, and Constitution and Canons. He also serves on the Greater Buffalo Racial Equity Roundtable. In 2018, he became the first bishop to serve on the House of Deputies Committee on the State of the Church.

Rowe is married to Carly Rowe, a Christian educator; they have a daughter named Lauren.

The presiding bishop takes office on Nov. 1. Details about the transition and celebration will be announced after General Convention.

Visit “God at ‘I’ Level” Art Exhibit

By Amber Noel, The Living Church
Christ Church Cathedral is pleased to host the “God at ‘I’ Level” gallery by photographer Azher Imtiaz.

Since 2016, Asher Imtiaz has been telling stories of recent immigrants to the United States, mainly refugees and asylum seekers, through photography. This calling has only become clearer against the backdrop of anti-immigration rhetoric and the politics of fear. “The only way to combat ‘the other’ mentality is to share stories,” says Imtiaz. “Immigration has been a major divisive issue among Americans in the last few years and has created fear among many. We sometimes forget that behind every issue is a person we can get to know and honor and love. That God is at eye level.

“Ansel Adams once said that a good photograph is ‘knowing where to stand.’ While this is often interpreted as finding the perfect geographic location to capture light, I choose to make it political. Fitting my contemporary work into the history of photography, ‘knowing where to stand’ becomes a statement of conviction in our contemporary society. We need to live a life of sustained attention. And awareness should move toward responsibility and action.”

“God at ‘I’ Level” takes similar themes and subjects and focuses specifically on confronting the all-powerful “I” in individualistic culture, engaging human eyes to get beyond the alienating self-absorption that leads to unjust attitudes and practices: “God is looking back at us. God is at eye level. Looking in human eyes is an opportunity to love God. Christians in the U.S. need this reminder—especially when some leaders say and do things that are dehumanizing.”

Copies of the gallery program are available throughout the nave.
