CLOUT: Investing in A City of Justice

This month our Justice Ministry begins the final portion of our program year, the Investment Drive. The Cathedral's investment goal for this year is $9500, about the same as last year. Compared to other much larger member congregations, CCC investors are very generous. Our successes this year include a public commitment from Mayor Greenberg to implement the reforms mandated in the LMPD Consent Decree even if it is not approved by the federal court.

The expertise and hard work of our two full-time professional community organizers guide our nearly 400 unpaid volunteers in achieving results like this. Our financial investments support them, pay for the Nehemiah Action venue, office expenses, and provide leadership training for the Team Leaders in each of our 24 member congregations.

Be a part of ensuring that Louisville's systems treat everyone fairly. Please prayerfully consider making a meaningful investment in your Justice Ministry's work. It's very easy to make a tax-deductible investment on the WWW.CLOUTKY.ORG website. And, of course, you can mail your check to: CLOUT, P.O. Box 2771, Louisville, KY 40201-2771. Please see Page Curry or Terry Laun with any questions.

Author's forum and book discussion of Bound By an Oath on Sunday, June 8

Christ Church Cathedral is pleased to welcome local author and Episcopal priest the Rev. Anne Marie Harris for an author's forum and discussion of her debut novel, Bound By an Oath, on Pentecost Sunday, June 8 at 12 noon.

It is 462 AD, and the monk, Fra Paulos, is reminiscing on his long life. And what a life!

Sent many years earlier to find the Pope's brother, who had stayed in the land of the Britons after the last Romans had left, Paulos braves the sea journey only to find that the legacy left by the Romans is beginning to wane in the face of resurfacing druid beliefs. However, there are some Christians doing good work, and Paulos needs to stand firm against the hatred leveled towards all Romans.

Then he meets Aethelreda, Queen of the Cantii, and for Paulos, life is about to change forever.

Copies of Bound By an Oath can be found at Barnes and Noble, Books-A-Million, or Amazon. For more about Anne Marie and her work, visit her website <https://www.annemarieharris.com/>

Christ Church Cathedral will be joining with other Episcopal Churches in our Diocese to take part in the Kentuckiana Pride Parade and Festival on Saturday, June 21. You are invited to march in the Pride Parade, staff a booth for the Episcopal Church at the Festival, or both.

For those interested in marching in the Pride Parade, our group will gather in front of Guacamole restaurant (900 E Market Street, Louisville) at 10 AM. Streets will be closed off for the event, so please make sure you leave extra time to park and walk to the meet up point. You can find more details about the parade here: <https://kypride.com/parade> If you have any questions about the Parade, please contact the Very Rev. Dr. Lee Shafer at rector@calvaryepiscopal.org

You can also sign up to be a booth volunteer. While working at the booth you will have the opportunity to meet folks who are attending the festival and let them know about the Episcopal branch of the Jesus movement and how they can get connected with a local congregation or event. We will provide admission tickets to any booth volunteers who need them. You can sign up for a booth volunteer shift here: <https://tinyurl.com/4fu3nssw> If you have any questions about working the booth, please contact Dean Matt at matt@christchurchlouky.org

Looking For Volunteers

We are looking for a group of 3-4 Volunteers who would be willing to staff the Parish Office on Tuesdays from 8:30-9:00 am until 12:00-12:30 pm, for one day each month. Volunteers are asked to answer the parish phone if it rings, greet visitors who may come to the window, and answer the doorbell when the back door rings, or someone knocks at the garden door. Most of the time, you will simply be a happy presence in the office, a friendly face for guests and parishioners. You are welcome to bring a book with you to read as you bide your time in the office.

Having a pool of volunteers will allow each of you to help, without tying any of you down every week. Please speak with Susan if you are interested in helping! She will show you everything you need to know. Reach out to her by calling the Parish Office, or speak with her at Coffee-Hour after the Service.

Informational Meeting in Dean's Hall June 1st.

Are you looking for a way to become a little more involved in your Cathedral? There are options available! Are you interested in learning about how to be a Chalice Bearer, or what it takes to be an Acolyte, or perhaps a Lector? Do you want to know what it is like to run the camera for the live feed for Sunday services, or other special services that are needed?

If you just like meeting people you can greet them coming in, or learn to be an usher. Perhaps you would like to learn how to ring the steeple bells.

We will be having an informational meeting on June 1st in Dean's Hall after the Service. If you are interested please stop by!

Christ Church Christ to hold Sacred Ground Circle this summer

This summer Christ Church Cathedral will hold a weekly Sacred Ground Circle beginning Wednesday, June 18 at 6:00 PM in Deans Hall. Sessions will last two hours and will include a light supper.

Sacred Ground is a film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Participants in the Circle will walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity.

The 11-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories.

Sacred Ground is part of Becoming Beloved Community, The Episcopal Church's long-term commitment to racial healing, reconciliation, and justice in our personal lives, our ministries, and our society. This series is open to all, and especially designed to help white people talk with other white people. Participants are invited to peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenges and divides of the present day – all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love.

If you are interested in joining the Circle, or if you have any questions, please email Susan in the parish office at susan@ccclou.org
