Men's Lunch Group meets August 6

The Men's Lunch Group will move downtown in August to Locals Food Hub & Pizza Pub at 822 East Broadway. They will meet at our usual time of 1PM.

Locals is at the southwest corner of East Broadway and Logan Street. There is plenty of free parking on Broadway and on Logan and Shelby Streets.

Locals serves pizza and sandwiches. While you are there, be sure to check out their Food Hall. It is a full-service market with exclusively locally-sourced products, similar to going to a farmers' market.

Please let Mike DaRif know if you will be able to attend.

Summer Songwriter Series: Save the Date!

Christ Church Cathedral, in conjunction with Nick Teale, is pleased to present the third and last of the Summer Songwriter Series at Christ Church Cathedral for 2025 on Sunday August 24 at 1pm. There is no cover charge, but donations are greatly appreciated and the collected proceeds will be donated to UP for Women and Children for this final date. We've been excited to share this longer summer series, and happy to let the congregation know about this through the Parish Notes. If you haven't been able to share this event before, don't miss this last we hope you plan to join us on August 24 at 1:00 PM!

Weekly Sunday Bible Study Returns Next Sunday

The Sunday Morning Bible Study has been on hiatus during the month of July. We will resume meeting on August 10, 2025. See you then!

Lost and Found

Our Lost and found collection is growing. Are you missing any item that you might have placid and then forgotten? Check with the Parish Office. We currently have a variety of items waiting for an owner to come retrieve them! Any items unclaimed by the end of the month will be given away.

Introducing Mr. Austin Echols

Christ Church Cathedral is pleased to announce that Austin Echols has accepted the position as Director of Music and Organist. Austin is a conductor, organist, and composer living in Louisville, KY. He received his Bachelor of Music and Master of Music in Choral Conducting from the U of L School of Music. Immediately following his graduate studies, Mr. Echols was appointed Conductor of the U of L Singing Cardsmen. Austin is currently the Organist-Choirmaster at the historic Episcopal Church of the Advent in the Highlands neighborhood of Louisville. He has worked in Church music for over twenty years.

"The history of the church, indeed the history of God's people, is one of music," Austin notes. "David's psalms, Mary's Magnificat, and the canticle of Simeon, all remind us that our boldest witness is most often sung. In the gospels of Matthew and Mark, it was only after they had sung the psalm that the journey to the Mount of Olives began. To quote Barbara Brown Taylor, 'the word made flesh became music also.' And so, it is with joy and as steward of that history that I come to Christ Church Cathedral to serve as Director of Music."

Austin's background is extensive, and in addition to the work he has done within the Churches he served in Louisville for fifteen years each, he has accompanied numerous school and community ensembles, working with area choirs as a guest clinician. Mr. Echols was recently invited to assist the Louisville Male High School Chamber Choir in preparation for their performance of his work at the 2020 Kentucky Music Educators Association conference. Another of his compositions was performed by the Selwyn College, Cambridge Choir in England and Switzerland during the summer of 2023.

Austin has been a member of the Louisville Chamber Choir since it was founded in 2013, and has served in multiple choral, musical, and Music and Worship conferences. He is active in the Association of Anglican Musicians. Austin also recalls with fondness the time when, during his first year of undergraduate studies, he was the bass section leader for Christ Church Cathedral under John Cantrell.

Dean Matt expressed excitement about Austin accepting the position at the Cathedral. "Austin brings with him gifts of leadership and musicianship which, when combined with his love and knowledge of the tradition of Anglican Church music, will support our congregation in our worship and draw the best out of our choir. We are looking forward with eager anticipation to Austin joining the Cathedral staff and congregation next month."

m We hope you will welcome Austin to the Cathedral when he joins us for his first Sunday on August 17.
